

Identifying local professionals who are shining examples of Christian leadership in the workplace, community, and church

LEADERS in Christian Service 2009

Do you know someone who is a shining example of Christian leadership beyond the walls of the church? A doctor, a teacher, an artist, a business person — whatever their profession, they advance the cause of Christ and exemplify a stewardship of their life, influence and resources.

Recommend this person as a Leader in Christian Service so that we all may learn from his or her example.

presentation

Those being honored will be recognized at a special convocation service in Seeger Chapel on the Milligan College campus on TUESDAY, APRIL 7.

process

An independent review committee will review recommendations and select those to be recognized, who will be notified in late March.

Consideration will be given to the following three areas:

- excellence of Christian character
- strong Christian example through professional/vocational or volunteer leadership
- evidence of Christian service in the church and community
