

TEACHER DIVERSITY PROGRAM GRANT APPLICATION FOR FALL 2009

This program exists to help address the shortage of underrepresented groups in the teaching profession, to nurture teachers who embrace diversity as an instructional tool, and to help Milligan secure the mission-based educational benefits of a diverse student body. Undergraduate or graduate teacher education students are eligible to apply. This project is funded under an agreement with the State of Tennessee. Awards are made on a rolling basis, so early application is strongly encouraged. Students must first complete the Milligan admissions application and be offered admission to the college.
