Dear Alumni/ae and Friends of Milligan,

This is it! The trip you've been asking for! Imagine the heart of the Humanities Tour you always wanted to go on! Imagine a walk through ancient history, a survey of European art and architecture, and a reliving of Christian history, all rolled into one amazing adventure. Imagine three of the most fascinating cities on earth—Venice, Florence, and Rome—with plenty of other stops in between!

Take a look at the itinerary. We begin in Venice, riding water buses, water taxis, and gondolas to places like St. Mark's Square, the Byzantine Basilica San Marco, and the Doges Palace. Next we stop at Pisa with its Leaning Tower and its equally interesting church and baptistery. On to Florence and the flowering of the Renaissance, where David, Michelangelo's masterpiece, awaits, along with the artwork of many others. We won't miss the great churches, beautiful piazzas, and unforgettable gelato either.

Next we stop in serene Siena on our way to an overnight in Assisi, a city "beautiful for situation" and renowned for the Basilica of Saint Francis. Then on to Sorrento and the lovely Amalfi coast before a stop in historic and haunting Pompeii. The climax of the trip is Rome, a combination of bustling modern capital, seat of classical culture, and center of Christian faith and artistic expression.

So this is it! The trip you've been asking for! We guarantee interesting and congenial traveling companions and great service by our tour company Nawas. We stay in first class/select hotels and have buffet breakfast daily. Most dinners are included but we will have plenty of opportunities to experience the local cuisine at street-side vendors and trattorias. There's a great mix of guided tours and free time in each city for shopping and further exploration. We'll be looking for your reservation form and deposit soon.

Hoping you can join us,

Lee and Pat Magness and Bill and Edwina Greer
