Enjoy creativity and game-like activities that are sure to make this year's Summer Arts one of the most entertaining, creative, and enjoyable camps... EVER!
Our camp always fills quickly, so be sure to put Milligan Summer Arts Camp on your calendar and register early.

What is Milligan Summer Arts Camp?
We're the original "arts in the summer" day-camp experience for the Tri-Cities.
Creative Director Keith Hertzog, Camp Coordinator Carlene Eastridge, and a talented faculty of highly qualified teachers and professionals lead campers through experiences in art, music, literature, drama, movement, and more.

Where is it held?
... on the beautiful campus of Milligan College. Classes will be held in Derthick Hall. Lunch will be in the McCormick Dining Center. Campers will swim at the end of each day Monday
- Thursday in Milligan's indoor pool located on the lower level of the Lacy Fieldhouse.

Who is the camp for?
Milligan Summer Arts is for young people ages 7-13. Our campers come from all over the Tri-Cities and beyond. The campers are grouped by age/grade, and enjoy the fellowship of that group throughout the day. It's great to see new friendships develop through the week. If your camper has a friend of the same age who will be attending, you may request on the registration form that they be grouped together. (See "Group with" on the form.) We will try our best to accommodate these requests.

What are the dates?
June 1-5, Monday-Friday, 8:30-4:30 each day. Campers may arrive between 8:15-8:30 a.m. and should be picked up at 4:30 p.m. Special arrangements for drop-off between 7:45-8:15 a.m. and pick-up between 4:35-5:00 p.m. may be made by signing up at registration. There will be a fee of $2 for each morning period (Tues.-Fri.) and for each afternoon period (Mon.-Thurs.). Families whose children arrive before 8:15 or are picked up after 4:35 will be charged this fee even if not signed up.

What is the cost of the camp?
Register by May 9, and the cost is $210 ($200 for each additional sibling).
Register after May 9, and the cost is $220 ($210 for each additional sibling).
Lunch in the dining hall is included in the cost. This all-you-care-to-buffet includes a hot bar, salads, sandwich-makings, desserts, and drink. If your child would prefer to bring a lunch and drink, or to pay per day, that is fine. Just subtract $25 from the cost of the camp, and check the appropriate space on the registration form.

Because the camp has a limited enrollment, the following cancellation policy will be in effect:
- Up to one-week prior to the first day of camp: full refund of deposit + additional monies paid
- Three to six days prior to the first day of camp: 1/2 refund of deposit (+ all additional monies paid)
- No refund of deposit on two days or less notice (except for emergency).
