

FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

FALL SEMESTER 2020

Based on the “Milligan Returns Home” plan, final exams may be offered in one of two ways:

Online: Complete final exams online during the week of Nov. 30-Dec. 3. Online finals with a synchronous component must occur within the time window prescribed by the regular final exam schedule below.

Face to face: Complete final exams face-to-face before Thanksgiving Break begins on Nov. 25. Classes in which finals are concluded before Thanksgiving must include additional learning activities for the week after Thanksgiving break (research projects, group projects, presentations, etc.) that will be completed and submitted online.

Exams or other learning activities that are offered in a synchronous format during the week of November 30 – December 3 should follow the schedule below:

Evening classes

Classes meeting once a week with a start time of 5:30 p.m. or later will have the final examination during the week of November 30 - December 3 on the day and at the time the class normally meets (if a synchronous exam is given). Once-per-week classes with a start time earlier than 5:30 p.m. should take the final exam with the class period that most closely matches the start time of the class.
