LEADING IN MINISTRY

THROUGH SCHOLARSHIP, COMMUNITY, AND FAITH

TRAINING TODAY'S LEADERS

Emmanuel is a graduate seminary near Johnson City, Tennessee, in the heart of the spectacular Appalachian Highlands. For over 55 years, Emmanuel has brought together strong academics, a commitment to ministry both at home and abroad, and true discipleship in a loving Christian community in order to train the next generation of leaders in ministry.

SCHOLARSHIP

Emmanuel offers theological education for the 21st century, accredited by the Association of Theological Schools (ATS). Our programs represent the best blend of biblical, historical, theological, and ministerial studies. Whatever your interests in ministry, our programs of study will provide a foundation you can build upon for the rest of your life. It's important that your seminary education also addresses you as a person in ministry. Spiritual formation courses, faculty mentoring, and supervised internships are designed to help you follow God's call.

COMMUNITY

Emmanuel is a supportive community of faith and learning, where faculty, staff, and students come together in a unique way on a beautiful campus in the midst of the Appalachian Mountains. There is a healthy and active campus life, and students' spouses and children are encouraged to become involved in the life of the seminary community. Unique to most seminary campuses, Emmanuel has on-campus housing available, so you are within walking distance of your home, as well as surrounded by a community of fellow students and their families.

FAITH

Studies show that the amount of preparation you put in for ministry directly correlates to how long you will remain in ministry and how well you are able to maintain your energy and enthusiasm through the years. Developing the disciplines of study, prayer, discernment, and worship, all while being rooted in community, is the Emmanuel ideal. The seminary has great relationships with local churches where students put their academics into practice as they worship, serve, and work.
